

walk with Mr Bell & Miss King past St George's Hall - St John's church - the Exchange and another fine building, which Mr Bell described, but could not enter! We returned to the Hotel, and then Will and I took a delightful hansom again, to see the Prince's Park - and Lepton Park, (which was not yet completed) - and then dined with our former companions, including Miss King, Mr Bell - Mr Morgan & Mr Hull, and then took train by the London and N.W. Railway, via Crewe to London, where we arrived at 9.30 P.M. We found comfortable, but not elegant apartments at the Buckingham Palace Hotel, immediately opposite the City residences of the Queen - Buckingham Palace.

Good.
Monday

We awoke in our ~~new~~ apartments in London. ^{and looked out on Buckingham Palace} And after a nice little breakfast had a call from Col. Gouraud & Dr. Bell with whom Will had business concerning the Denver & Rio Grande Railway Scheme for 5 hours - during which I wrote a long letter to Mother atushing.

Afterwards Will & I took our first walk in London - along the "Birdcage walk" - & then entered St James Park - in which we were locked up but succeeded finally in emerging at a distant gate - so that when we reached the
