

Will & Dr. Bell stopped at the Printer and Mrs Bell & Queen returned by way of the Strand, Pall Mall & St.
James Park to the Hotel - where Mrs B left Queen and Emma Palmer joined her. & after a visit from Mrs Col Gouraud Queen & Emma went by the underground R.R. to Madame T-saudi's water works.

The same evening Dr. Bell, & we dined at the Gayety Restaurant, and thence stepped into the Gayety Theatre - (Ladies & ~~saw~~ gentlemen all in dress) & heard Betty, the Waterman, and Bombalazar.

Nov 24. Found note from Miss King waiting Thursday Col & Mrs. Gouraud called before we got through with our late breakfast - The Col & Will had a business talk & then Mrs. Gouraud, Queen & Will rode out to Bond & Regent & Oxford St shopping then to the Queen's Stables - then to the Pall Mall Restaurant for a lunch of Coppery oysters (not broiled) & thence to the London Joint Stock Bk where Will wished to cash his letter of credit, & ~~where~~ opposite to which we saw the Bank of England These were the well known precincts of Lombard St, Threadneedle St &c - Returned to Charles's office did some shopping - moved most promptly
