

Dec 4 Col & Mrs Gouard called -

Sunday
Dec 5

Monday

Remained at home while Will went to keep some business engagements in the city - Mrs Fleming called - I sang all the morning - We [Will & I] drove out to Putney to the Cedars to ~~dinner~~ with Mr & Mrs Robert Milligan - whom we found charming people - We met Misses Wilson - [nieces of Mr Milligan] there - and also Mr M - 's father who is a very old man - having fought in the war of 1812. We were obliged to hurry away as Will had a ~~business~~ engagement to dine with Mr Thomson & Hankey. In the evening Mr Dolby and Mr. Neave called at Dr Bells, Lucien sang the American war songs - Dr Dolby and Lucien discussed the slavery question - Then "My Uncle Will" - Then Miss Bell said it was time for me to go to bed.

Dec 6.

Tuesday

Morning - Will attended to Railway business. In evening both went out with Dr Bell to Mr. Fleming's 17 m on the N. S. R. to Epping - Will Hall, or Thadenmont a fine old Mansion 300 years old met Mrs. Fleming & all the children at the hall door. We were shown to our room - in which Lucien Elizabeth had slept.
