

(will be telegraphed Mr Reiff) quite late. - At 6 o'clock we dressed for dinner - which celebrated Christmas instead of waiting till the next day which would be Sunday. - We had Mrs Scovell - Annarona - Mrs Lance & Miss Shuttleworth & sang the war - negro songs - Rev Ware - & I grafted into the Army - We danced Sir Roger de Coverly - and I danced the galop a little with Mr William Bell. - (on Friday.

Mr Powell ^{M.P.} called - and I received a letter from Mrs Hanworth.)

Sunday I hung up my stockings, Dec 25.

Sunday In the morning I found Miss Kinkle Dec 25. had really been to my stockings. for I found a beautiful watch in it! - I told Will to thank Santa Claus for me - if he should ever meet him - which he promised to do. - We were very late to breakfast - and hurried to the drawing room - directly after - from which we went directly to the Abbey - We sat with Lady Augusta - who was very polite and kind - and who invited us to come again - The services were conducted after the very high church manner and
