

poems - Got Mr R. Ward Cox of funch chocolate - to pay for Resigna bet - Played Scrabble with Maimie - and after wash with Maimie, Richard & Margaret from splendidly - Will came in after tea - and we went to the Great Western - or Paddington Hotel for the night - Mr Rolston called on Will -

Tuesday
Jan 9

Left at two o'clock for Chippenham - on the Great Western line - The Prince of Wales on our train in his private Carriage - we reached Chippenham about five - Mr Powell's "Sociable" but as at the depot - and we drove about eight miles to the Slentreey - (pronounced Sloney) House - where we met with a most cordial welcome from Mrs Powell - her son - and Mrs Jenkins - her daughter Mr Jenkins - and Mr Bayes
We dressed for the Grand County Ball - (I wore my white ^{and} poems) - We drove off on time to reach the ball by 10 o'clock - a very pretty affair - thought the ladies as a rule stuff plain and awkward -