

troubles" - stand one other - Will grow tired. and went to the hotel leaving me with Mr Parrish. - The star of the evening was - Madame Chaumont. All the acting quite good - except "Madame Therese" whom I considered exceedingly vulgar - Singing intermision.

Sunday
Jan
29.

Breakfasted at the Hotel de Saxe (don't go there again!!!) where we were stopping and after packing we went to a concert at the "Musical Palace" ^{very good!} From the concert ^{we} ^(Mr Parrish wife & I) went to the thirty gallery - where we saw at great many of Mr. Treacy's wonderful pictures - and of which, although exceedingly coarsely painted - (the paint ^{very} like common house paint) ~~were~~ produced a remarkably fine effect at a great distance - We bought some of the photographs of the ones we liked the best. - and then went to the Hotel - where I gave Mr Parrish "of late again" and he gave me a lovely box of bonbons - Said good bye and started for the train. - taking passage for London via Ostend & Dover - Reached Ostend at
