and 9 o'clock and were on board the boat crossing the channel for five hours. - A remarkable good passage. - At Dover standard by "murder! Help! will no one come to my relief!" dreadful ly frightened "Yes!!!"
Saw a man with delirium tremens. Stopped for the rest of the night at "Spiced hair!!!"

Looked the train for London - ^{Breakfast} ~~stayed~~ at the station. News of the Armistice Invitation waiting for us to dine at Birmingham - did not accept - Retired early. -

Tuesday
until
Sunday
the 5th of Feb

At Mr Bell's - waiting for the Dutch Bankers. - Mr Traddingham in London.
Met Mr Carpenter & Mr Hooper - During the week I went to the "Burlington House" to see ^{with Miss Bell & Miss Williamson} some remarkable old pictures - Titians - Murillo - Van-dyck - Raphael, Correggio etc - The finest collection I ever saw - especially the "Beggars with St Thomas" by Murillo - Titians and Murillo my favorites. - I bought dress at M.
Le Gume's - also black silk dresses for mother - Julia Clarke & Ellen Palmer - Had photographs taken - 9 boxes came from Brussels
